SHOW BIG SUCCESS

PACKED HOUSE AT BOY SCOUTS' VAUDEVILLE ENTERTAINMENT

ACTS "WENT OVER" BIG

The Nine-Act Bill Was Filled With Novelties and Features That Pleased Big Audience

Maryville didn't know whether it liked vaudeville or not until it saw the big benefit entertainment at the Empire theatre last night for the Maryville Boy Scouts. It bought tickets, though, in anticipation, until the S. R. O. sign was hung out, and with the appearance of the first act the audience concluded that it was decidedly worth while, and every "act" got an encore. It was a critical audience, and it would have found little to criticize, had it been so disposed, for, as an amateur performance, it went unusually well.

Misses Mary Carpenter, Mary Margaret Richey, Mary Woodbridge and Virgil Rathbun in a "musical revue"—a double piano duet, was splendidly done.

Frank Green (in private life traveling salesman for Meyer Drug Co., of St. Louis, and assistant scoutmaster) did a blackface monologue like an old troupier and his dancing brought you back to the old minstrel days.

Mrs. Fred P. Robinson was in excellent voice and delighted with two appropriate numbers. An attractive stage setting added to her act.

Ernest Sherlock, cartoonist, did some remarkably clever work with the crayon showing a natural talent that is the envy of illustrators.

Sutton and Alderman (Mr. and Mrs. Verne Alderman) in "The Shake-down," a clever playlet, in which a clever female crook gets the best of the veteran police inspector, was one of the big hits of the bill. Mr. and Mrs. Alderman are versatile performers whom Maryville may expect to see again.

Laverne Robey on the flying trapeze was easily the hit of the show. A fearless young performer, he did some stunts that professionals find difficult. He was recalled for a second exhibit of his skill.

Marcus T. Nielsen and Miss Helen Johnson in a pianologue, "Hiawatha's Wooing," was done in costume. Mr. Nielsen's interpretation of Longfellow's poem was fascinating while Miss Johnson at the piano lent further emphasis and originality to the reading.

Herman and Keller proved a surprise with Verne Alderman and Lee Maier doing the act, a clever mind reading stunt that puzzled the audience. Mr. Maier impersonated Anna Eva Fay, appearing in evening costume.

The final act found about twenty-five Boy Scouts on the stage, half of the number posing in a big double pyramid, which was followed by a short Scout drill. Ten pretty girls, Ruth Miller, Ora Mae Condon, Mabel Cook, Alice Peery, Thelma Craig, Marie Cloud, Margaret Remus, Ruth Houchins, Justine Fraser and Lena Gilbert, came into the picture, each with a flag representing one of the allied nations. An American soldier, a Red Cross nurse (Miss Mary Condon), Barbara Fritchie (Mrs. Verne Alderman), Abraham Lincoln (John Thompson), and Mr. Alderman, Paul Miller and George Thompson in the "Spirit of '76", completed the scene, and with the orchestra playing "The Star Spangled Banner" the curtain went down on the most successful amateur show ever presented in Maryville.

Between acts, Secretary E. M. Claypool of the Commercial Club, in a brief talk, announced the pleasure of the audience with the performance and the interest Maryville had in the Boy Scouts.

The greater part of the success of the enjoyable entertainment was due to the untiring efforts of Mr. Alderman, who directed the acts, arranged the scenery and provided the costumes. Mr. Alderman's years of experience in legitimate and vaudeville has especially fitted him for such work and as he is now a resident of Maryville his talent will doubtless be often in demand.

The story of the success of the entertainment would not be complete without mention of the orchestra as the music was a distinct feature of the evening. The music in the last act, the national air of each of the countries represented by the ten young ladies, was an interesting addition to the program.

The Boy Scouts cleared a nice sum from the entertainment and ask the Democrat-Forum to acknowledge their appreciation of the patronage and obligations to the folks who so kindly gave their time to the show.

WAR PAYROLL GROWS

100 MILLION DOLLARS PAID OUT TO MEN EACH MONTH

DON'T COUNT ALLOWANCES

Huge Sum Does Not Include Sums Paid for Support of Men's Families or War Risk Benefits

Washington, Jan. 15.—The payroll of the fighting forces of the United States is now nearly 100 million dollars a month.

This sum includes salaries of officers and enlisted men in the army and navy serving both in this country and abroad, family allotments and compensation for certain services, but does not take into account family allowances paid by the government toward the support of families of enlisted men, under specified conditions, nor does it include any of the special compensatory features of the Military and Naval Insurance Act.

Details of the pay received by soldiers and sailors and of the operation of the war risk insurance bureau have just been compiled by the several departments for the information of the public and those relating to the navy were made public last night by the committee on public information. The officers will be made public later and separately.

The committee's statement shows that in December approximately 17 million dollars was disbursed as the monthly compensation for the services of some three hundred thousand officers and men who constitute the uniformed force of the navy. This did not include any amounts that have been paid under the War Risk Act as family allowances or other compensation provided for by law.

The system of pay in the navy is complicated by a large number of ranks and ratings, as well as financial rewards for special merit and service and allowances made for quarters for officers serving on shore duty. The salaries range from $32.60 per month paid mess attendants and apprentice seamen to the $833 a month paid to the admiral commanding a fleet. Added to the officer's regular pay is graduated compensation for length of service and 10 per cent additional for duty beyond the continental limits of the United States.

Enlisted men are paid stated sums for re-enlistment, with $5.50 for the first re-enlistment, and $3.30 for each subsequent re-enlistment, if they are citizens of the United States. Seamen gunners get $2.20 extra a month; stewards or cooks who hold certificates of qualification and are citizens of the United States get $5.50 a month extra, and enlisted men receive eighty-three cents a month extra for each good conduct medal held.

Men performing specified duties, three-fourths of their regular pay. Enlisted men are retired after thirty years' service and are paid three-fourths of the total pay and allowance they received at the date of retirement and cash in lieu of quarters and subsistence.

Officers and men of the naval reserve force and the national naval volunteers, while on active duty, receive the same pay and allowances as those of the same rank and length of service in the regular army. When first called into active service in time of war or national emergency, a uniform gratuity of $150 is allowed each officer of the naval reserve and $60 to each enlisted man.

HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS IN JUNIOR RED CROSS WORK

CLASSES ARE ORGANIZED

Knitting Baby Coverlets and Making Garments for Hospital Use in Stricken Countries of Europe

The first Nodaway county unit of the Junior Red Cross has been organized by the girls of the High School with nearly seventy-five members with classes in knitting under the direction of Mrs. J. M. McDonald and garment making classes under the supervision of Miss Anna Balmum, teacher of domestic science. The girls have $32 in their treasury and on Mondays and Wednesdays time is allotted for work. The girls in the knitting class are making baby coverlets and the garment classes are making garments for use in the hospitals. Many of the members take their knitting home as it is not required that it be done at regular meeting hours.

School children all over the United States are engaged in this work of the daily press, both in Louisville and throughout the three states from which our soldiers come.

What we would like to get you to do would be to come to Camp Zachary Taylor to assume primary responsibility for all publicity outside of Trench and Camp, and to help Mr. Clark in improving the news service at Evianle-Bain, and that "in the first week of the American Dispensary over 2,400 children were examined, more than 1,900 being between the ages of three and thirteen years." The refugees are destitute and ill. They must be given both food and clothing before being sent on to their "billets" in various towns and villages. The French government, which is putting its force into the fighting line, cannot care for these wrecks of war. They depend for all the first needs of life, for food, shelter and clothing, upon the American Red Cross.

The Red Cross will continue to meet these heavy responsibilities as long as the people in America stand behind it with money and supplies. It is calling upon its newest members, the girls and boys in the school auxiliaries, to clothe these children and their parents. The American children are assured that not an atom of their work will be wasted. Every garment turned into the Red Cross for this purpose adds to some refugees' fighting chance for life.

English schools took up this work early in the war, sending in a few months 10,000 "kits" to Belgian and Serbian children.

Normal school girls in France came to the aid of pupils driven from school in the invaded districts, making clothes for them and receiving them into their homes. American school auxiliaries are beginning well. The Chicago school auxiliaries turned in 17,122 hospital and refugee garments between the beginning of the school year and December 1st. The children knit even as they walk to school.

TO EDIT ARMY PAPER

DAVID M. WARREN OF DEMOCRAT-FORUM TO KENTUCKY POST

WITH 'TRENCH AND CAMP'

Will Be Associate Editor of Newspaper Published for Soldiers of National Army—Will Report at Once

David M. Warren, advertising manager of the Democrat-Forum, has resigned his position and will leave next week for Camp Zachary Taylor, Louisville, Ky., to be associate editor of "Trench and Camp," the newspaper published there for soldiers in the National army. He was able to get the position through J. S. Moore, a former secretary of the University Y. M. C. A. at Columbia, who is now one of the building secretaries at Camp Zachary Taylor.

Warren sent in an application for newspaper work on one of the cantonment publications last October, but there were no vacancies at the time, according to John Stewart Bryan of Richmond, Va., who has charge of all the national army newspapers.

The letter from P. C. Dix, camp secretary, to Mr. Warren, follows:

Army Y. M. C. A.,
Camp Zachary Taylor, Ky.,
January 11, 1918.

My Dear Mr. Warren:

Mr. Moore has referred to me your letter of January 3rd. The situation with us regarding the matter of news paper work is this—we have a camp paper, published weekly, which is called Trench and Camp. The present editor, E. A. Clark, is a private soldier, detailed to us for this work. Another very important part of our work is the attention to publicity in the daily press, both in Louisville and throughout the three states from which our soldiers come.

What we would like to get you to do would be to come to Camp Zachary Taylor to assume primary responsibility for all publicity outside of Trench and Camp, and to help Mr. Clark in improving the news service at Evianle-Bain, and that "in the first week of the American Dispensary over 2,400 children were examined, more than 1,900 being between the ages of three and thirteen years." High German Commands Dominate Government Attitude On Russo-German Peace Terms

Special to The Democrat-Forum. Amsterdam, Jan. 15.—The high commands in the German army now dominate the government attitude on the Russo-German peace terms and the liberal press of Berlin expresses deep dissatisfaction over the situation. The Berliner Tageblatt is quoted as saying: "The situation is absolutely impossible if it means that the political government is now controlled by the military."

Army Officer Was Arranging Wedding During Tragedy

Just before Lieut. Jack Searles of the 354th Regiment, Camp Funston, was married last Saturday to Miss Kathleen Corrine Chittenden at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Chittenden, 2300 Montgall Avenue, he received a telegram from the commanding officer at Funston. The wire asked that the lieutenant account at once for his presence on the previous night between the hours of 7 and 9 o'clock.

It was between those hours that Capt. Lewis J. Whisler, also of the 354th, as it developed later through his suicide, killed four men and badly wounded a fifth prior to robbing the Army Bank at Funston of an amount estimated to be between $50,000 and $80,000. It was suspected that the crime had been committed by an army officer and every officer on leave was telegraphed to show where he was at that time.

It was easy for Lieut. Searles to do as at the time Capt. Whisler was wielding his ax, Lieut. Searles was at the Chittenden home making arrangements for his wedding on the following day.—Kansas City Times.

Big Shake-up in German Government Imminent—Hertling and Kuhlman May Be Compelled to Resign

Special to The Democrat-Forum. Amsterdam, Jan. 15.—A big shakeup in the German government loomed imminent today as a result of the struggle between the militarists and the liberals. The Hangerman campaign to crush the moderates and still their demands for peace on the basis of no annexations has reached the zenith of its power and now that the Kaiser has aligned himself with the junker group, the prediction is freely made today that Chancellor Von Hertling and foreign minister, Kuehlmann will be compelled to resign. It is now reported that in view of the new elements injected into the situation by the crown council, the war aims talk of Chancellor Von Hertling before the Reichstag main committee will be postponed.

One of Maryville's society ladies has solved the problem of entertaining undesirable company. She works it this way: When she hears the bell ring she puts on her hat and gloves and goes to the door; if it is someone she does not care to see she simply says, "So sorry, I'm just going out to fill an appointment"; and if its someone she does want to see, she simply says, "So fortunate I have just come in."

NEW MAIL SERVICE

GOVERNMENT TO OPERATE MOTOR TRUCK PARCEL POST

HAVE 4,000 MILE ROUTE

Deliveries Will Start Within Next Three Months, According to Postmaster General Burleson

Washington, Jan. 15. — Deliveries over parcel posts aggregating between three and four thousand miles by motor truck within the next three months is the aim announced by Postmaster General Burleson.

One chain of motor truck routes will link up Portland, Me., with New Orleans, and another will cover a large stretch of territory in Ohio, Illinois, Indiana and West Virginia. Routes to be established on the Pacific coast will pass through Stockton and Fruitdale, between San Francisco and Sacramento, Calif., a distance of 125 miles, and through Ontario and Pomona, between Redlands and Los Angeles, a distance of 76 miles.

It is the belief of the postoffice department that the operation of these routes and others to be established will materially aid in the distribution and in lowering the cost of food products.

The existing law does not provide for the employment of government-owned motor trucks on rural delivery routes nor does it require the rural carriers to use motor vehicles.

In the star route service, however, where the mail is carried under contract, a recent law permits the post office department to designate the sort of vehicles to be employed and in awarding new contracts the department will specify that motor trucks shall be employed on all routes where the roads are such as to permit of their use. These contracts are advertised for bidders, and where payment asked for the service is deemed to be excessive the department is authorized to provide government-owned motor trucks and to employ drivers for the operation of these routes.

To Make Extensions.
A further extension of the employment of government-owned motor vehicles by its adoption for the parcel post service of the rural routes will be made whenever congress enacts a law now pending for that purpose.

With the exception of a branch between Washington, D. C., and Richmond, Va., the course of which has not yet been decided on, a chain of routes has been adopted linking Portland, Me., with Nashua, N. H.; Nashua with Worcester, Mass.; Worcester with Hartford, Conn.; Hartford with New York City; New York City with Easton, Pa.; Easton with Philadelphia; Philadelphia with Oxford, Pa.; Oxford with Baltimore, Md.; Baltimore with Washington, D. C.; Lynchburg, Va., with Winston-Salem, N. C.; Winston-Salem with Charlotte, N. C.; Charlotte with Greenville, S. C.; Greenville with Atlanta, Ga.; Atlanta with Birmingham or Montgomery, Ala.; Birmingham or Montgomery with Jackson, Miss. Routes will be established from Jackson to New Orleans, La., and Jackson to Mobile.

Advertise for Bids.
These routes are now surveyed and are being advertised for bids. Where satisfactory bids are not received, government-owned trucks will be used.

The routes already in operation with government-owned trucks are from Washington, D. C., to Leonardtown, Md., a distance each way of 54 miles; from Annapolis, Md., to Solomons, Md., a distance each way of 65 miles; from Washington, D. C., to Baltimore, Md., via Ridgeville, Pa.; Baltimore to Philadelphia, Pa., via Belair, Md., Oxford and West Chester, Pa., a distance each way of 116 miles, and from Baltimore to Gettysburg, Pa., via Westminster, a distance each way of 53 miles.

Routes in the middle states will form a chain from Indianapolis, Ind., to Columbus, O.; Columbus to Zanesville, O.; Zanesville to Wheeling, W. Va.; Wheeling to Pittsburgh, Pa.; Pittsburgh to Uniontown, Pa.; Uniontown to Cumberland, Md.; Cumberland to Hagerstown, Md.; Hagerstown to Staunton, Va.; Staunton to Lynchburg, Va.

Further extensions contemplated but not yet surveyed are from Charleston, W. Va., to Columbus, O.; Columbus to Cincinnati, O.; Cincinnati to Louisville, Ky.; Louisville to Chattanooga, Tenn., and Chattanooga to Atlanta, Ga.

LEE AND GRANT MEMBERS OF SAME CLUB—WAR ENDS

Washington, Jan. 15. — Ulysses S. Grant and Robert E. Lee are today "both members of the same club." The grandsons of the generals who led opposing armies in the Civil War have been voted into membership by the board of governors of the Chevy Chase Club.

When their names were proposed and a member explained to the chairman the relationship of Messrs. Grant and Lee to their historic namesakes, one of the board moved that they be admitted and "that the Civil War be unanimously declared here and now officially at an end."

WAR BREAD AND FOOD CARDS ARE PREDICTED

Chicago, Jan. 15.—War bread and food cards loom as possibilities, according to two members of the National food administration, who attended the Patriotic Food Show here. "Real war bread must come," according to F. C. Wolcott, one of Herbert C. Hoover's aides. "The public should demand that bakers produce nothing but war bread, which must be made of at least 20 per cent non-wheat materials, such as corn meal, oatmeal, rye and barley."

"Volunteer saving has not yet taken enough to make certain that we can furnish our soldiers and the civilian population of our allies with sufficient food. And the greatest need that exists now is that we save more wheat. This is imperative."

"I have been saving up money for an operation for gall stones which my physician advised in my case. Since taking one bottle of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy it looks as though I can safely use this money to buy Liberty Bonds. I suffered for years with colic attacks and bloating." It is a simple harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Maryville Drug Co.

THE UNRAFTED ARMY

To the civilian American who feels a keen desire to be represented as directly as possible in his country's service the Red Cross brings an appeal of peculiar force. For the Red Cross worker comes into the closest contact with the actual struggle that is possible to any save the soldier himself. On the heels of death and destruction he presses so closely in his mission of mercy as to be almost a part of the battle. His are the hands that first minister to the shattered body; his the ears that hear the last faint message of many a parting soul. Through the further help of these brothers and sisters of the Novitiate of Pain, life after life is drawn back from the borderland; cleanliness and comfort and trained care lessen the anguish, or, when death must be, makes easier the passing. To our boys when they land on foreign soil the hand of greeting is held out; as they travel from place to place comforts are provided. The scarred and broken remnant of a people scourged by a ruthless devastation—the aged and the women and the piteously helpless children to whom our longing sympathy goes out, the Red Cross ministers to these in our stead.

In all this and measureless other service these workers are a vital and omnipresent force. We who are left at home may work by proxy through them. We can keep them there and send others, with our money, the least precious possession that men and women are being called on to give up. Our dollars can take us there in spirit and represent us in accomplishment. The little red button is the badge of enlistment in the Army of the Undrafted; the outward symbol of the pledge to serve.

Won't you join the Red Cross during the Christmas membership drive, which begins Dec. 17? Or, better still, send in your $1 for membership now and then enlist as a solicitor for other memberships in the Christmas drive. It is your duty to do this, and it is a God-given privilege.

Humanity is calling, and if you are human you will respond. Act now!

BELGIAN ORPHANS GIVEN NEW LIFE THROUGH RED CROSS

Around the American Red Cross Christmas membership campaign, which is to be inaugurated throughout the nation Monday, Dec. 17, continuing until Christmas eve, national headquarters announces that the organization already is assisting in the care of Belgian orphans who were carried by their captors into Germany and who are beginning to be released. The first groups, consisting of 500 children each, have been received back into the Allies' territory.

These homeless children, sick and under-nourished, all between 4 and 13 years of age will receive the best possible care from the American Red Cross, which recognizes in them Belgium's hope for its coming generation.

Twenty miles from Limoges, in the southern center of France, on a hillside of a little town called Trocha, stands the famous monastery of I. Grande Chartreuse, unoccupied at present. There roses bloom the year round. Permission was given to use this place for the Belgian children, and it was rented from the government by the Red Cross, which supplies the funds for the work, while the personnel and management are provided by the Belgian committee. In this monastery the Red Cross hopes to bring back to life and vigor these children, in whom lies the hope of Belgium.

TWO OBJECTS ARE SOUGHT IN FRENCH RELIEF WORK

The American Red Cross assumes that the work done by the organization with the French must fill fundamentally two requirements:

First—That all activities contribute to the successful conduct of the war.

Second—That they relieve suffering caused by the war.

Work done with the civil population may have a more important bearing on the military situation even than work done with the forces, for men in the field will be able to carry out their work better with the knowledge that those left at home are being taken care of.

If the American people can get a real picture of the misery among those who have been and are being daily driven out of their homes and dumped in poverty upon other parts of the country, oftentimes ill or mutilated, they will gladly do all in their power to help.

Special Aid to Italy.

The American Red Cross responded promptly to the emergency created by the Italian retreat. The War Council, in a telegram to Ambassador Thomas Nelson Page, promised every effort which the Red Cross could make would be applied immediately to the relief of Italy.

New Uniforms for Nurses.

Owing to the limited laundry facilities in France, it has been decided that American Red Cross nurses with base hospitals and other military hospitals in France shall wear gray uniforms instead of the usual white.

The members of the T. A. G. Club entertained last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Lewis in honor of their daughter, Mary, who goes today to Ravenwood to accept a position as teacher of the seventh and eighth grades, and Philip Colbert who leaves Thursday for Rolla, Mo., to resume his studies in the School of Mines. The evening was spent playing progressive rummy, the prizes going to

Misses Olivette Godsey and Vella Booth. Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Lewis. The members present were Misses Mary Lewis, Dorothy Dale, Vella Booth, Olivette Godsey, Alma Lucas and Lucile Snowberger. The guests were Miss Martha Rhoades, Phil Colbert, Martin Lewis, Wade Henderson, Fred Connor, Forrest Brown, Virgil Baron and Vern Pickens.

Entitled Monday Bridge.

Miss Bettie Turner was hostess to the members of the Monday Afternoon Bridge Club yesterday at her home on South Main street. Three guests, Mrs. Ralph Eversole, Mrs. Joseph Jackson, Jr., and Miss Dorothy Pierce were present. The prize went to Mrs. J. F. Colby.

"Kensington" for Friends.

Mrs. Dale Bellows entertained a few friends at a "Kensington" this afternoon at her home southwest of Maryville in honor of Mrs. Frank Flynn of Kansas City, Mrs. Ernest Robinson of Springfield, and Misses Aleen and Merle Burris of St. Joseph, who are visiting friends and relatives in Maryville. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

Series of War Bridges.

Mrs. W. J. Osburn and Mrs. W. A. Rickenbrode completed a series of three war bridge parties last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Rickenbrode on West Third street. A complete set of knitted articles was given as prizes. This is an innovation in Maryville, they being the first war bridges now so popular in the cities.

Describing Happiness.

There are thousands of short story writers and minor poets who can deal very effectively with battlefields, slums, maniacs, shipwrecks, disease and a thousand forms of human degeneracy, observes the New York Independent, but they are incapable of making their characters happy without making them bored—and the reader likewise. The pessimist declares that evil, suffering and villainy are the natural materials of literature because they are the fundamental realities of life and happiness is only a mirage which disappears as one approaches it. The only trouble with this theory is that it isn't so. We know plenty of people who have been happy, though we have yet to meet the first of them who could describe how it felt.

Was a Good Waiter.

He had just reached the philosophical stage when he slipped into a restaurant for a bit to eat. Then he sat staring ahead, quietly thoughtful in expression, and waited.

It is admitted he did some waiting, too. What happened to his order couldn't be understood outside the peculiar restaurant kitchen, but he spent half an hour sitting there staring ahead of him.

At last it came. As the waitress put the order before him he started from his deep study, as if he had forgotten he had an order coming. Then, looking up at the fair transporter of edibles, he said:

"You don't look a day older!"

Who Pays The Freight?

If it weren't for modern methods of handling goods—railroads, wholesalers, retailers, delivermen, etc., what would it cost you to get the necessities of life?

You couldn't get some of them at all, could you? These services are so efficient that they really make things cheaper instead of higher. So it is with our Sanitary Meat Handling, our delivery service and our high grade meats, and full weights.

Our Prices are as Low as

Why We Sell Lower

We eliminate all useless overhead expenses and you get the benefit through lower prices for meat. No delivery and spot cash for goods mean savings to you.

Prof. P. F. Trowbridge of the University of Missouri gave a lecture and demonstration of meat cutting to St. Joseph housewives last week. This man, one of the greatest authorities on meat in Missouri said to those women: "Go and see the meat yourself. Then you know what you are getting. I wish that a telephone could never be used for marketing."

That is just what our patrons do. They see the quality of our meats. Take advantage of these

KANSAS CITY STOCK LETTER

Kansas City Stock Yards, Jan. 14.—Cattle receipts today were 7,000 head, market steady to 10 and 25 higher. Hogs 3,000 today, market opened 13 to 25 higher, close steady; top $16.40. Sheep and lambs, 5,000, market 10 to 15 higher; top lambs $16.90.

Beef Cattle—The highest price paid for steers last week was $13.15; the week before $13.25. Today the top was $12.90, which was paid for some 1329 pound steers. Beef steers sold mostly at 10 to 15 higher prices, and butcher grades sold 25 higher, a few sales still higher. The supply here today was not quite half as large as last Monday. Extreme cold weather throughout the country interfered with the transportation of live stock and some railroads were unable to haul stock to market, but as the temperature is rising service will be better the rest of the week. Heavy cows sold today as high as $11; bulls were higher, a good many sales between $9 and $10. Veal calves were steady selling up to $13.50.

Stockers and Feeders—The demand for stockers and feeders was very keen all last week, but today on account of poor railroad service, and there being but a few cattle of that class here, the feeling was about steady. Best stockers sold for 10.65 and some 1075 pound feeders brought $11.65. Stock cows and heifers were scarce and firm.

Hogs—The market opened 15 to 25 higher to shippers and closed steady to packers. Shippers paid $16.40 for best hogs early, which was the top. Packers would only pay $16.15 for heavy hogs and the bulk of all sales ranged from $15.95 to $16.35.

Sheep and Lambs—The market was 10 to 15 higher today; some western lambs sold for $16.90, the top, and some fed western yearlings brought $14.85. There were very few killing sheep here. Feeding and breeding stock sold steady; some lambs sold as feeders for $15.75.

WORLD'S BIGGEST SERVICE FLAG CLAIMED BY MINERS

Indianapolis, Jan. 15.—The world's largest service flag, is the boast of members of the United Mine Workers of America, who met here today in the twenty-sixth consecutive and the third biennial convention of the order. The flag contains 19,135 stars. It is 48 x 75 feet in dimensions and is swung tight as a canopy in the big convention hall. Four hundred yards of cloth were used in its manufacture.

That in excess of 50,000,000 additional tons of coal would have been mined during 1917 had it not been for car shortage was declared here yesterday by John L. Lewis, vice president of the organization.

By figuring the basic averages for all union coal fields for reported loss of production due to car shortages, it is estimated that the per capita producing power of the 410,000 union miners was reduced approximately 82.7 tons per man employed, aggregating a total loss of 36,709,715 tons.

Obituary.

Henry Charles Clary was born in Marion county, Indiana, October 10, 1836. At an early age he came west with his parents and located on a farm near Des Moines, Iowa, where he grew to manhood. He was united in marriage to Lucy A. Nelson in 1858. To this union seven children were born, all of whom are living except two, who died in infancy. During the Civil War he answered his country's call for volunteers and became a member of Co. F, Fourth Iowa Volunteer Infantry, and served with distinction through the war, participating in the siege of Vicksburg, and was with Sherman on his march to the sea.

Mr. Clary became a member of the Christian church in 1868 and was always active in church and social work during his earlier life until his infirm condition made it necessary to give up his active services. He came to Missouri in 1874, locating on a farm two miles north of Maryville, where he lived until the death of his wife in 1893. A few years later he sold his farm and moved into Maryville, making his home for the greater part of the time with his daughter, Mrs. W. H. Frazee, 516 South Dewey st., at which place he died on January 9, 1918, at the age of 82 years. He was one of the oldest members of White Cloud lodge No. 92, I. O. O. F. The funeral was conducted at the home, Friday, at 2 p. m., by the Christian church pastor, Rev. C. Emerson Miller, and the Odd Fellows.

He leaves a host of friends who can say he was always kind, honest and generous to a fault. Peace be to him.

Easy to Make This Pine Cough Remedy

Thousands of families swear by its prompt results. Inexpensive, and saves about $2.

You know that pine is used in nearly all prescriptions and remedies for coughs. The reason is that pine contains several peculiar elements that have a remarkable effect in soothing and healing the membranes of the throat and chest. Pine is famous for this purpose. Pine cough syrups are combinations of pine and syrup. The "syrup" part is usually plain granulated sugar syrup. Nothing better, but why buy it? You can easily make it yourself in five minutes. To make the best pine cough remedy that money can buy, put 2½ ounces of Pinex (60 cents worth) in a pint bottle, and fill up with home-made sugar syrup. This gives you a full pint—more than you can buy ready-made for $2.50. It is pure, good and very pleasant—children take it eagerly. You can feel this take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. The cough may be dry, hoarse and tight, or may be persistently loose from the formation of phlegm. The cause is the same—infamed membranes—and this Pinex and Syrup combination will stop it—usually in 24 hours or less. Splendid, too, for bronchial asthma, hoarseness, or any ordinary throat ailment. Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is famous the world over for its prompt results. Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

SHOW BIG SUCCESS

PACKED HOUSE AT BOY SCOUTS' VAUDEVILLE ENTERTAINMENT

ACTS "WENT OVER" BIG

The Nine-Act Bill Was Filled With Novelties and Features That Pleased Big Audience

Maryville didn't know whether it liked vaudeville or not until it saw the big benefit entertainment at the Empire theatre last night for the Maryville Boy Scouts. It bought tickets, though in anticipation, until the S. R. O. sign was hung out, and with the appearance of the first act the audience concluded that it was decidedly worth while, and every "act" got an encore. It was a critical audience, and it would have found little to criticize, had it been so disposed, for, as an amateur performance, it went unusually well.

Misses Mary Carpenter, Mary Margaret Richey, Mary Wooldridge and Virgil Rathbun in a "musical revue"—a double piano duet, was splendidly done.

Frank Green (in private life traveling salesman for Meyer Drug Co. of St. Louis, and assistant scoutmaster) did a blackface monologue like an old troupier and his dancing brought you back to the old minstrel days.

Mrs. Fred P. Robinson was in excellent voice and delighted with two appropriate numbers. An attractive stage setting added to her act.

Ernest Sherlock, cartoonist, did some remarkably clever work with the crayon showing a natural talent that is the envy of illustrators.

Sutton and Alderman (Mr. and Mrs. Verne Alderman) in "The Shake-down," a clever playlet, in which a clever female crook gets the best of the veteran police inspector, was one of the big hits of the bill. Mr. and Mrs. Alderman are versatile performers whom Maryville may expect to see again.

Laverne Robey on the flying trapeze was easily the hit of the show. A fearless young performer, he did some stunts that professionals find difficult. He was recalled for a second exhibit of his skill.

Marcus T. Nielsen and Miss Helen Johnson in a pianologue, "Hiawatha's Wooing," was done in costume. Mr. Nielsen's interpretation of Longfellow's poem was fascinating while Miss Johnson at the piano lent further emphasis and originality to the reading.

Herman and Keller proved a surprise with Verne Alderman and Lee Maier doing the act, a clever mind reading stunt that puzzled the audience. Mr. Maier impersonated Anna Eva Fay, appearing in evening costume.

The final act found about twenty-five Boy Scouts on the stage, half of the number posing in a big double pyramid, which was followed by a short Scout drill. Ten pretty girls, Ruth Miller, Ora Mae Condon, Mabel Cook, Alice Peery, Thelma Crais, Marie Cloud, Margaret Remus, Ruth Houchins, Justine Fraser and Lena Gilbert, came into the picture, each with a flag representing one of the allied nations. An American soldier, a Red Cross nurse (Miss Mary Condon), Barbara Fritchie (Mrs. Verne Alderman), Abraham Lincoln (John Thompson), and Mr. Alderman, Paul Miller and George Thompson in the "Spirit of '76", completed the scene, and with the orchestra playing "The Star Spangled Banner" the curtain went down on the most successful amateur show ever presented in Maryville.

Between acts, Secretary E. M. Claypool of the Commercial Club, in a brief talk, announced the pleasure of the audience with the performance and the interest Maryville had in the Boy Scouts.

The greater part of the success of the enjoyable entertainment was due to the untiring efforts of Mr. Alderman, who directed the acts, arranged

We will not redeem Cream or Milk Bottles After January 16

Bring them in while they are worth a nickel

the scenery and provided the costumes. Mr. Alderman's years of experience in legitimate and vaudeville has especially fitted him for such work and as he is now a resident of Maryville his talent will doubtless be often in demand.

The story of the success of the entertainment would not be complete without mention of the orchestra as the music was a distinct feature of the evening. The music in the last act, the national air of each of the countries represented by the ten young ladies, was an interesting addition to the program.

The Boy Scouts cleared a nice sum from the entertainment and ask the Democrat-Forum to acknowledge their appreciation of the patronage and obligations to the folks who so kindly gave their time to the show.

WAR PAYROLL GROWS

100 MILLION DOLLARS PAID OUT TO MEN EACH MONTH

DON'T COUNT ALLOWANCES

Huge Sum Does Not Include Sums Paid for Support of Men's Families or War Risk Benefits

Washington, Jan. 15.—The payroll of the fighting forces of the United States is now nearly 100 million dollars a month.

This sum includes salaries of officers and enlisted men in the army and navy serving both in this country and abroad, family allotments and compensation for certain services, but does not take into account family allowances paid by the government toward the support of families of enlisted men, under specified conditions, nor does it include any of the special compensatory features of the Military and Naval Insurance Act.

Details of the pay received by soldiers and sailors and of the operation of the war risk insurance bureau have just been compiled by the several departments for the information of the public and those relating to the navy were made public last night by the committee on public information. The others will be made public later and separately.

The committee's statement shows that in December approximately 17 million dollars was disbursed as the monthly compensation for the services of some three hundred thousand officers and men who constitute the uniformed force of the navy. This did not include any amounts that may have been paid under the War Risk Act as family allowances or other compensation provided for by law.

The system of pay in the navy is complicated by a large number of ranks and ratings, as well as financial rewards for special merit and service and allowances made for quarters for officers serving on shore duty. The salaries range from $32.50 per month paid mess attendants and apprentice seamen to the $832 a month paid to the admiral commanding a fleet. Added to the officer's regular pay is graduated compensation for length of service and 10 per cent additional for duty beyond the continental limits of the United States.

Enlisted men are paid stated sums for re-enlistment, with $5.50 for the first re-enlistment, and $3.30 for each subsequent re-enlistment, if they are citizens of the United States. Seamen gunners get $2.20 extra a month; stewards or cooks who hold certificates of qualification and are citizens of the United States get $5.50 a month extra, and enlisted men receive eighty-three cents a month extra for each good conduct medal held.

Men performing specified duties, three-fourths of their regular pay. Enlisted men are retired after thirty years' service and are paid three-fourths of the total pay and allowance they received at the date of retirement and cash in lieu of quarters and subsistence.

Officers and men of the naval reserve force and the national naval volunteers, while on active duty, receive the same pay and allowances as those of the same rank and length of service in the regular army. When first called into active service in time of war or national emergency, a uniform gratuity of $150 is allowed each officer of the naval reserve and $60 to each enlisted man.

75 IN FIRST UNIT

HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS IN JUNIOR RED CROSS WORK

CLASSES ARE ORGANIZED

Knitting Baby Coverlets and Making Garments for Hospital Use in Stricken Countries of Europe

The first Nodaway county unit of the Junior Red Cross has been organized by the girls of the High School with nearly seventy-five members with classes in knitting under the direction of Mrs. J. M. McDonald and garment making classes under the supervision of Miss Anna Bainum, teacher of domestic science. The girls have $32 in their treasury and on Mondays and Wednesdays time is allotted for work. The girls in the knitting class are making baby coverlets and the garment classes are making garments for use in the hospitals. Many of the members take their knitting home as it is not required that it be done at regular meeting hours.

School children all over the United States are engaged in this work of making garments for needy children, women and old men who fled from the invaded districts early in the war.

Some of these people are in France, others daily cross the Swiss border. A recent cablegram from Paris states that an average of 250 children arrive daily from behind the German lines at Evian-Bain, and that "in the first week of the American Dispensary over 2,400 children were examined, more than 1,900 being between the ages of three and thirteen years." The refugees are destitute and ill. They must be given both food and clothing before being sent on to their "billets" in various towns and villages. The French government, which is putting all its force into the fighting line, cannot care for these wrecks of war. They depend for all the first needs of life, for food, shelter and clothing, upon the American Red Cross.

The Red Cross will continue to meet these heavy responsibilities as long as the people in America stand behind it with money and supplies. It is calling upon its newest members, the girls and boys in the school auxiliaries, to clothe these children and their parents. The American children are assured that not an atom of their work will be wasted. Every garment turned into the Red Cross for this purpose adds to some refugees' fighting chance for life.

English schools took up this work early in the war, sending in a few months 10,000 "kits" to Belgian and Serbian children.

Normal school girls in France came to the aid of pupils driven from school in the invaded districts, making clothes for them and receiving them into their homes. American school auxiliaries are beginning well. The Chicago school auxiliaries turned in 17,122 hospital and refugee garments between the beginning of the school year and December 1st. The children knit even as they walk to school.

Dr. L. E. Dean received word yesterday from the surgeon general of the United States army that he had been accepted for service in the Medical Reserve Corps, having passed successfully the physical requirements. Dr. Dean will report for service on receipt of orders.

Death of Infant.

TO EDIT ARMY PAPER

DAVID M. WARREN OF DEMOCRAT-FORUM TO KENTUCKY POST

WITH 'TRENCH AND CAMP'

Will Be Associate Editor of Newspaper Published for Soldiers of National Army—Will Report at Once

David M. Warren, advertising manager of the Democrat-Forum, has resigned his position and will leave next week for Camp Zachary Taylor, Louisville, Ky., to be associate editor of "Trench and Camp," the newspaper published there for soldiers in the National army. He was able to get the position through J. S. Moore, a former secretary of the University Y. M. C. A. at Columbia, who is now one of the building secretaries at Camp Zachary Taylor.

Warren sent in an application for newspaper work on one of the cantonment publications last October, but there were no vacancies at the time, according to John Stewart Bryan of Richmond, Va., who has charge of all the national army newspapers.

The letter from P. C. Dix, camp secretary, to Mr. Warren, follows: Army Y. M. C. A., Camp Zachary Taylor, Ky. January 11, 1918.

Mr. David M. Warren, Maryville, Mo.

My Dear Mr. Warren:

Mr. Moore has referred to me your letter of January 3rd. The situation with us regarding the matter of newspaper work is this—we have a camp paper, published weekly, which is called Trench and Camp. The present editor, E. A. Clark, is a private soldier, detailed to us for this work. Another very important part of our work is the attention to publicity in the daily press, both in Louisville and throughout the three states from which our soldiers come.

What we would like to get you to do would be to come to Camp Zachary Taylor to assume primary responsibility for all publicity outside of Trench and Camp, and to help Mr. Clark in improving the news service in Trench and Camp. Our thought is that if Mr. Clark should be called back to his military duties you would then be ready to assume the editorship of the paper also. Meanwhile you would be an associate editor with him.

As perhaps you know, we are expected to secure men for our various positions at a salary not to exceed their present income, and we are willing to offer you the equivalent of your present salary. We would furnish you a room in one of our buildings, but you would, of course, have to pay your own living expenses. You can make application on the enclosed blank, and if accepted by the National War Work Council as a secretary, we would furnish you one complete uniform. You could be employed by us, however, as a newspaper man even if you were not accepted as an army Y. M. C. A. secretary. The only question involved would be your right to wear the uniform, which belongs exclusively to men who have been accepted by our National Council.

Please consider this a definite offer to begin work at the earliest possible date, and wire immediately when I can expect you. I believe that you will enjoy your work here very much.

Cordially yours,
PHILAS C. DIX,
Camp General Secretary.

The new position will not entitle Warren to exemption from the draft, and he will be subject to call in the next one, as he waived all classification and was put in Class I, Division A.

Bombard Yarmouth.

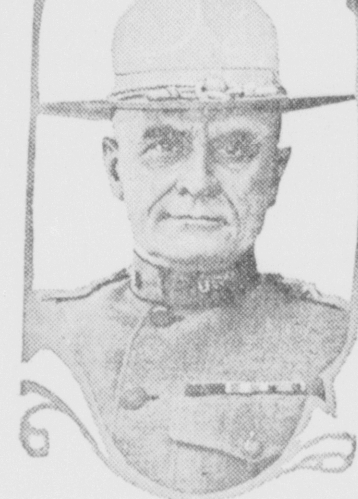

Special to The Democrat-Forum. London, Jan. 15.—Three were killed and ten injured when Yarmouth on the North Sea coast was bombarded from the sea early today. It was officially announced that twenty shells were thrown into the city, but that the damage was not extensive.

Ill While on Furlough.

Fred O'Reilly of near Skidmore, who was taken ill of measles while on a furlough from Camp Funston, several weeks ago, is reported improved and expects to be able to return to camp soon.

James Colvin, Robinson Craven and Preston Seafers went to Ravenwood yesterday to attend the meeting of the officers and stockholders of the Platte Valley Bank.

MAJ. GEN. HARRY HALE

Maj. Gen. Harry Hale, U. S. A., commander of Camp Zachary Taylor, near Louisville, Ky., and which comprises selected men from Illinois, Indiana, and Kentucky. This division is the eighty-fourth of the National Army. General Hale journeyed from China, where he was in service, to Kentucky, to take over his new command.

David M. Warren, of the Democrat-Forum staff, leaves soon to be associate editor of "Trench and Camp," published at Camp Zachary Taylor.

High German Commands Dominate Government Attitude On Russo-German Peace Terms

Special to The Democrat-Forum. Amsterdam, Jan. 15.—The high commands in the German army now dominate the government attitude on the Russo-German peace terms and the liberal press of Berlin expresses deep dissatisfaction over the situation. The Berliner Tageblatt is quoted as saying: "The situation is absolutely impossible if it means that the political government is now controlled by the military."

HAD A PERFECT ALIBI

Army Officer Was Arranging Wedding During Tragedy

Just before Lieut. Jack Seales of the 354th Regiment, Camp Funston, was married last Saturday to Miss Kathleen Corrine Chittenden at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Chittenden, 2300 Montross Avenue, he received a telegram from the commanding officer at Funston. The wire asked that the lieutenant account at once for his presence on the previous night between the hours of 7 and 9 o'clock.

It was between those hours that Capt. Lewis J. Whisler, also of the 354th, as it developed later through his suicide, killed four men and badly wounded a fifth prior to robbing the Army Bank at Funston of an amount estimated to be between $50,000 and $80,000. It was suspected that the crime had been committed by an army officer and every officer on leave was telegraphed to show where he was at that time.

It was easy for Lieut. Seales to do as at the time Capt. Whisler was wearing his ax, Lieut. Seales was at the Chittenden home making arrangements for his wedding on the following day.—Kansas City Times.

THE MILITARY VS. LIBERALS

Big Shake-up in German Government Imminent—Hertling and Kuhlman May Be Compelled to Resign

Special to The Democrat-Forum. Amsterdam, Jan. 15.—A big shakeup in the German government loomed imminent today as a result of the struggle between the militarists and the liberals. The Hangerman campaign to crush the moderates and still their demands for peace on the basis of no annexations has reached the zenith of its power and now that the Kaiser has aligned himself with the junker group, the prediction is freely made today that Chancellor Von Hertling and foreign minister, Kuehlmann will be compelled to resign. It is now reported that in view of the new elements injected into the situation by the crown council the war aims talk of Chancellor Von Hertling before the Reichstag main committee will be postponed.

THE UNDRAFTED ARMY

To the civilian American who feels a keen desire to be represented as directly as possible in his country's service the Red Cross brings an appeal of peculiar force. For the Red Cross worker comes into the closest contact with the actual struggle that is possible to any save the soldier himself. On the heels of death and destruction he presses so closely in his mission of mercy as to be almost a part of the battle. His are the hands that first minister to the shattered body; his the ears that hear the last faint message of many a parting soul. Through the further help of these brothers and sisters of the Novitiate of Pain, life after life is drawn back from the borderland; cleanliness and comfort and trained care lessen the anguish, or, when death must be, makes easier the passing. To our boys when they land on foreign soil the hand of greeting is held out; as they travel from place to place comforts are provided. The scarred and broken remnant of a people scourged by a ruthless devastation—the aged and the women and the piteously helpless children to whom our longing sympathy goes out, the Red Cross ministers to these in our stead.

In all this and measureless other service these workers are a vital and omnipresent force. We who are left at home may work by proxy through them. We can keep them there and send others, with our money, the least precious possession that men and women are being called on to give up. Our dollars can take us there in spirit and represent us in accomplishment. The little red button is the badge of enlistment in the Army of the Undrafted; the outward symbol of the pledge to serve.

Won't you join the Red Cross during the Christmas membership drive, which begins Dec. 17? Or, better still, send in your $1 for membership now and then enlist as a solicitor for other memberships in the Christmas drive. It is your duty to do this, and it is a God-given privilege.

Humanity is calling, and if you are human you will respond. Act now!

BELGIAN ORPHANS
GIVEN NEW LIFE
THROUGH RED CROSS

About the American Red Cross Christmas membership campaign, which is to be inaugurated throughout the nation Monday, Dec. 17, continuing until Christmas eve, national headquarters announces that the organization already is assisting in the care of Belgian orphans who were carried by their captors into Germany and who are beginning to be released. The first groups, consisting of 500 children each, have been received back into the Allies' territory.

These homeless children, sick and under-nourished, all between 4 and 13 years of age will receive the best possible care from the American Red Cross, which recognizes in them Belgium's hope for its coming generation.

Twenty miles from Limoges, in the southern center of France, on a hillside of a little town called Trocha, stands the famous monastery of I. Grande Chartreuse, unoccupied at present. There roses bloom the year round. Permission was given to use this place for the Belgian children, and it was rented from the government by the Red Cross, which supplies the funds for the work, while the personnel and management are provided by the Belgian committee. In this monastery the Red Cross hopes to bring back to life and vigor these children, in whom lies the hope of Belgium.

TWO OBJECTS ARE SOUGHT
IN FRENCH RELIEF WORK

The American Red Cross assumes that the work done by the organization with the French must fill fundamentally two requirements:

First—That all activities contribute to the successful conduct of the war.

Second—That they relieve suffering caused by the war.

Work done with the civil population may have a more important bearing on the military situation even than work done with the forces, for men in the field will be able to carry out their work better with the knowledge that those left at home are being taken care of.

If the American people can get a real picture of the misery among those who have been and are being daily driven out of their homes and dumped in poverty upon other parts of the country, oftentimes ill or mutilated, they will gladly do all in their power to help.

Special Aid to Italy.

The American Red Cross responded promptly to the emergency created by the Italian retreat. The War Council, in a telegram to Ambassador Thomas Nelson Page, promised every effort which the Red Cross could make would be applied immediately to the relief of Italy.

New Uniforms for Nurses.

Owing to the limited laundry facilities in France, it has been decided that American Red Cross nurses with base hospitals and other military hospitals in France shall wear gray uniforms instead of the usual white.

The members of the T. A. G. Club entertained last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Lewis in honor of their daughter, Mary, who goes today to Ravenwood to accept a position as teacher of the seventh and eighth grades, and Philip Colbert who leaves Thursday for Rolla, Mo., to resume his studies in the School of Mines. The evening was spent playing progressive rock, the prizes going to

Misses Olivette Godsey and Vella Booth. Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Lewis. The members present were Misses Mary Lewis, Dorothy Dale, Vella Booth, Olivette Godsey, Alma Lucas and Lucile Snowberger. The guests were Miss Martha Rhoades, Phil Colbert, Martin Lewis, Wade Henderson, Fred Connor, Forrest Brown, Virgil Baron and Vern Pickens.

Mrs. Dale Bellows entertained a few friends at a "Kensington" this afternoon at her home southwest of Maryville in honor of Mrs. Frank Flynn of Kansas City, Mrs. Ernest Robinson of Springfield, and Misses Aileen and Merle Burris of St. Joseph, who are visiting friends and relatives in Maryville. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

Series of War Bridges.

Mrs. W. J. Osburn and Mrs. W. A. Rickenbrode completed a series of three war bridge parties last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Rickenbrode on West Third street. A complete set of knitted articles was given as prizes. This is an innovation in Maryville, they being the first war bridges now so popular in the cities.

Describing Happiness.

There are thousands of short story writers and minor poets who can deal very effectively with battlefields, slums, maniacs, shipwrecks, disease and a thousand forms of human degeneracy, observes the New York Independent, but they are incapable of making their characters happy without making them bored—and the reader likewise. The pessimist declares that evil, suffering and villainy are the natural materials of literature because they are the fundamental realities of life and happiness is only a mirage which disappears as one approaches it. The only trouble with this theory is that it isn't so. We know plenty of people who have been happy, though we have yet to meet the first of them who could describe how it felt.

Was a Good Waiter.

He had just reached the philosophical stage when he slipped into a restaurant for a bit to eat. Then he sat staring ahead, quietly thoughtful in expression, and waited.

It is admitted he did some waiting, too. What happened to his order couldn't be understood outside the peculiar restaurant kitchen, but he spent half an hour sitting there staring ahead of him.

At last it came. As the waitress put the order before him he started from his deep study, as if he had forgotten he had an order coming. Then, looking up at the fair transporter of edibles, he said:

"You don't look a day older!"

For Itching Torture

There is one remedy that seldom fails to stop itching torture and relieve skin irritation and that makes the skin soft, clear and healthy.

Any druggist can supply you with zemo, which generally overcomes all skin diseases. Acne, eczema, itch, pimples, rashes, blackheads, in most cases give way to zemo. We eliminate all useless overhead expenses and you get the benefit through lower prices for meat. No delivery and spot cash for goods mean savings to you.

Prof. P. F. Trowbridge of the University of Missouri gave a lecture and demonstration of meat cutting to St. Joseph housewives last week. I wish that a telephone could never be used for marketing."

That is just what our patrons do. They see the quality of our meats. Take advantage of these

KANSAS CITY STOCK LETTER

Kansas City Stock Yards, Jan. 14.—Cattle receipts today were 7,000 head, market steady to 10 and 25 higher. Hogs 3,000 today, market opened 15 to 25 higher, close steady; top $16.40. Sheep and lambs, 5,000, market 10 to 15 higher; top lambs $16.90.

Beef Cattle—The highest price paid for steers last week was $13.15; the week before $13.25. Today the top was $12.90, which was paid for some 1329 pound steers. Beef steers sold mostly at 10 to 15 higher prices, and butcher grades sold 25 higher, a few sales still higher. The supply here today was not quite half as large as last Monday. Extreme cold weather throughout the country interfered with the transportation of live stock and some railroads were unable to haul stock to market, but as the temperature is rising service will be better the rest of the week. Heavy cows sold today as high as $11; bulls were higher, a good many sales between $9 and $10. Veal calves were steady selling up to $13.50.

Stockers and Feeders—The demand for stockers and feeders was very keen all last week, but today on account of poor railroad service, and there being but a few cattle of that class here, the feeling was about steady. Best stockers sold for 10.65 and some 1075 pound feeders brought $11.65. Stock cows and heifers were scarce and firm.

Hogs—The market opened 15 to 25 higher to shippers and closed steady to packers. Shippers paid $16.40 for best hogs early, which was the top. Packers would only pay $16.15 for heavy hogs and the bulk of all sales ranged from $15.95 to $16.35.

Sheep and Lambs—The market was 10 to 15 higher today; some western lambs sold for $16.90, the top, and some fed western yearlings brought $14.85. There were very few killing sheep here. Feeding and breeding stock sold steady; some lambs sold as feeders for $15.75.

WORLD'S BIGGEST SERVICE FLAG CLAIMED BY MINERS

Indianapolis, Jan. 15.—The world's largest service flag, is the boast of members of the United Mine Workers of America, who met here today in the twenty-sixth consecutive and the third biennial convention of the order. The flag contains 19,135 stars. It is 48 x 75 feet in dimensions and is swung tight as a canopy in the big convention hall. Four hundred yards of cloth were used in its manufacture. That in excess of 50,000,000 additional tons of coal would have been mined during 1917 had it not been for car shortage was declared here yesterday by John L. Lewis, vice president of the organization.

By figuring the basic averages for all union coal fields for reported loss of production due to car shortages, it is estimated that the per capita producing power of the 410,000 union miners was reduced approximately 82.7 tons per man employed, aggregating a total loss of 36,700,715 tons.

Obituary.

Henry Charles Clary was born in Marion county, Indiana, October 10, 1836. At an early age he came west with his parents and located on a farm near Des Moines, Iowa, where he grew to manhood. He was united in marriage to Lucy A. Nelson in 1858. To this union seven children were born, all of whom are living except two, who died in infancy. During the Civil War he answered his country's call for volunteers and became a member of Co. F, Fourth Iowa Volunteer Infantry, and served with distinction through the war, participating in the siege of Vicksburg, and was with Sherman on his march to the sea.

Mr. Clary became a member of the Christian church in 1868 and was always active in church and social work during his earlier life until his infirm condition made it necessary to give up his active services. He came to Missouri in 1874, locating on a farm two miles north of Maryville, where he lived until the death of his wife in 1893. A few years later he sold his farm and moved into Maryville, making his home for the greater part of the time with his daughter, Mrs. W. H. Frazee, 516 South Dewey st., at which place he died on January 9, 1918, at the age of 82 years. He was one of the oldest members of White Cloud lodge No. 92, I. O. O. F. The funeral was conducted at the home, Friday, at 2 p. m., by the Christian church pastor, Rev. C. Emerson Miller, and the Odd Fellows.

He leaves a host of friends who can say he was always kind, honest and generous to a fault. Peace be to him.

Obituary.

Easy to Make This
Pine Cough Remedy

Thousands of families swear by its prompt results. Inexpensive, and saves about 82.

You know that pine is used in nearly all prescriptions and remedies for coughs. The reason is that pine contains several peculiar elements that have a remarkable effect in soothing and healing the membranes of the throat and chest. Pine is famous for this purpose. Pine cough syrups are combinations of pine and syrup. The "syrup" part is usually plain granulated sugar syrup. Nothing better, but why buy it? You can easily make it yourself in five minutes. To make the best pine cough remedy that money can buy, put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (60 cents worth) in a pint bottle, and fill up with home-made sugar syrup. This gives you a full pint—more than you can buy ready-made for $2.50. It is pure, good and very pleasant—children take it eagerly.

You can feel this take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. The cough may be dry, hoarse and tight, or may be persistently loose from the formation of phlegm. The cause is the same—infamed membranes—and this Pinex and Syrup combination will stop it—usually in 24 hours or less. Splendid, too, for bronchial asthma, hoarseness, or any ordinary throat ailment. Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is famous the world over for its prompt results.

Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Tires You Should Expect Me to Sell

My tire business is a sound business. I sell only tires that I know will cost the user least per season.

Then, in addition, I look after my customers' tires when they are in use to make sure that every one will give the last possible mile of service.

My business is a quality business, too. People who own the finest cars and take the greatest pride in their equipment come to me for tires and accessories which are the "last word" in their line.

Just now they are coming to me for Goodyear Cord Tires, in greater number than ever before, because these tires have come to be known as the quality tire of the world.

Goodyear Cords are the kind of tire you would expect to find in a quality place like mine—and mine is the kind of place where you would expect to find Goodyear Cords sold.

Let me show you why these tires will prove a real economy as well as a mark of distinction.
